

Ebb and Flow, the new album from Nelsons Wake (Chris & Siobhan Nelson & Barry Wake) is going down very well, with impressive radio coverage, particularly in the North and it is also receiving some brilliant reviews.

Here are some excerpts :-

"Gently imaginative arrangements, excellent solo and harmony singing, accomplished musicianship and an acute empathy with Barry's writing. A thoroughly charming release....." (fRoots magazine June 2008)

"Bringing together the veritable song-writing talent of Barry Wake, with Chris Nelson's accomplished and accommodating musicianship and Siobhan Nelson's utterly charming vocals....." (Mike Wilson, folking.com) and on Mike's myspace blog intro to his review "This is proper, honest music; well informed, beautifully crafted songs, played and sung with integrity and empathy".

"We don't have to recommend this album, as the song extracts do this wonderfully on their own.....combining a genuine appreciation of the folk tradition and an ability to portray it in highly enjoyable modern songs is a precious gift"..... (Mark Coyle, wovenwheatwhispers)

"But all in all, this is a most attractive collection of classy and satisfying songs that richly deserve to be heard (and sung) more widely"..... (David Kidman, NetRhythms)

And finally from S.R from Manchester, CD purchaser - " A Delight! A wonderful collection of songs, ranging from joyful, to poignant or even heartbreaking, but each one beautifully crafted".

To read the full reviews visit www.myspace.com/barrywake or www.myspace.com/chrissiobhannelson and click on the appropriate album review blogs.

There, you will also find links to buy the album on line from CD Baby and several other sources, or download the whole album or individual tracks from iTunes.

Due to geographical differences (Southport & Southampton) Nelsons Wake don't get to perform together very often, so if anybody out there wants to book them and make it happen, please send an e-mail

mailto:Wake@talktalk.net?subject=Nelsons Wake